VOL. XXXVIII.

BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 1916.

NUMBER 15

East Lone Oak.

The ladies of the Peru W. C. T. U. will have a pie supper at Peru next Friday night, Jan. 28. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

A young mare belonging to Dell Requa became entangled in the ice and died one day last week.

We were at Bill Carroll's one day last week and he has 2000 or 3000 bushels of corn in the crib. He says he would just as soon have the corn as the money and we shouldn't wonder and he is right about it.

We heard Chas. Pharis of the Star neighborhood has about 60 acres of corn to gather yet. This weather is rather bad on it.

Mrs. Vase Gough and Lizzie Blankenbaker visited Miss Ethyl Miller last Monday. They went at the request of the W. C. T. U.

We received a letter a few days ago from Robert E. Thomas. He is now settled about 15 miles west of Buhl, Idaho. He says he is very well pleased with the country. Said he would have to go and get a load of sage brush to keep warm by. It will be a long time before his fuel supply will run out.

Mrs. Bertha Williams was on the sick list last week but is better now.

H. H. Evilsizer has commenced to clear the right of way for the new levee on his patch of Marias des Cygnes bottom land.

The water has been out on the Marais des Cygnes bottoms for four or five days.

The Sunday school at Peru is starting out very nicely for the coming year. It takes lots of people to make a Sunday school. Are you going to be one to help make the Peru Sunday school this year? If not, why not?

Mr. Kuple bought corn of C. W. Ray last week.

Lora Deems will live on the Burton place next year. We think that C. W. Ray will live on his place at the northeast corner of Butler.

Since Elmer Requa has moved to Idaho he has purchased 20 acres of land. He now has 60 acres. He says the wheat on the place he bought made 70 bushels per acre and it is worth 84 cents per bushel.

C. U. Doane and Eli Thompson put up ice last week.

J. W. Thomas is on the sick list now. He is bothered with neuralgia.

PUSSY WILLOW.

North New Home.

Bill Dark spent one night last week at Cliff Ehart's.

The Wysong and Shay sale was well attended last week owing to the muddy roads and high water. Everything sold well.

Our mail carrier Mr. Haggard on R. F. D. No. 6 failed to make his route Friday on account of the high water.

Henry Ehart and wife, Mrs. J. W. Jones and children spent Saturday afternoon at Homer Lindendoll's.

Jim Morris and family visited at Brick McGaughey's Sunday and Mrs. Morris stayed until Monday.

Cliff Ehart and wife and little daughter visited at Milt Reeves Sunday.

Mr. Robinson and family visited at Mr. Craven's Sunday.

John McKimick sawed wood for Chas. Berry Saturday.

John Ehart and family visited with J. W. Jones and wife at Henry Ehart's Sunday.

Perry Osborne and family visited at Mr. Chandler's Sunday.

Willie Simpson and wife were callers at Mr. Lindendoll's Sunday afternoon.

Henry Ehart and wife spent the day at Frank Miller's Sunday.

Morris Dickert butchered hogs last week.

There was no school at East Lone Oak Monday on account of the water being high.

Mr. Lindendoll and the Ray family were in town Friday.

On the Wing.

A big surprise dinner was given Mrs. John Hedger Sunday, it being her 45th birthday. The table was fairly loaded with good things to eat, in fact everything that the heart could wish for in the way of eatables was there in abundance. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Browning, and two sons, Richard and John; Mrs. Tinker Hedger and son, Woodrow, Mr. and Mrs. John Hedger Jr., and daughter, Judis, Guy Harbrough, Frank Hedger, Miss Lena Hedger, Miss Marion Hedger, N. M. Nestlerode and wife and son. Every one had a fine time and left wishing Mrs. Hedger many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. T. J. Hockett visited with Mrs. McGuire Monday.

Aunt Sallie Foster has some fine Red Rock roosters for sale. They are dandies.

A good crowd was out to the debate Friday night at the Crooks school house in spite of the mud.

The devil in The Times office made a misprint in On the Wing items two weeks ago. It said that John Foster was herding his cattle on Harvey French's corn when it should have said that he was busy keeping them out of the corn.

Tinker Hedger has gone to the Adrian neighborhood to rent a farm for 1916.

I understand Glen Malone has rented the Wm. Weddow's farm one mile north of the Virginia cemetery. Glen is a fine man and we welcome him to our midst.

Jno. Foster Sr., has a fine male Duroc hog for sale. Weighs about 150 pounds.

Mrs. Arch Lewis and children of Amoret are visiting relatives and friends in the neighborhood. As they have a host of friends here it will take them a long time to get around.

Ray Jundy of Kansas has rented the Andy Simpson farm and moved on. Ray is a hard worker and a good neighbor.

There was a small attendance at Concord Saturday night on account of the high water, but great interest was shown and a good time was had by the small crowd present.

Johnny, our good correspondent from Elkhart is to be excused for not writing as I hear that his wife is quite sick. Johnny is a good one and we hope Mrs. Johnny will get well soon.

Moving time is here. Only four more weeks until the first of March. Don't forget to tell me to change your address. Write, phoen or holler.
